Overview

The objective of the Criminology Internship Program is to provide an opportunity for students to gain first hand experience working in a criminal justice agency. Students are expected to work approximately nine hours per week in a criminal justice agency for three credit hours. While the emphasis of the course is oriented towards gaining practical experience, course requirements also include written assignments.

How To Sign Up for the Criminology Internship Program

1. Select an agency or agencies from the list on reverse.
2. Call the contact person and set up an appointment to discuss the duties and responsibilities of your internship.
3. Once you have obtained the approval of an agency, contact Larry L. Bench at 545-5593 for registration numbers. You may also contact Sara Erickson, Undergraduate Advisor, Dept. of Sociology (581-4678), for registration numbers.
4. When you call for registration numbers, please have a mailing address, email address, and phone number where you can be contacted along with the address of the agency you will be working at, immediate supervisor's name and phone number. Registration numbers will not be given out without this information.
5. A meeting will be held for all interns the third week of the semester to discuss course requirements.
